

ICT Conference 2005

CAN Info Tech 2005: Nepal Information Technology show and conference

Highlights:

- Powerful conference agenda to keep you up to date with the latest on the IT and its applications.
- More than 5 directional keynotes by famous visionaries and pioneers of the IT industry
- Seven focused tracks covering the entire spectrum of the IT paradigm
- Over 15 sessions addressing a wide spectrum of technology, business and application issues
- More than 7 in-depth panel discussions providing an international perspective factored for Nepalese relevance

The Seven tracks:

1. Tele-Communications & Internet Technology and Services
  - Infrastructure
  - Access/Content
  - Services
2. Outsourcing: <Emerging scenario: Challenges and opportunities>
  - Computer Software Development, Services and Export
  - Trends /Opportunities in Software Development
  - Capacity Building
  - Open Source
  - E-Readiness
  - Legal and Regulatory dimensions: Privacy, Information Security, e-Payment
3. Human Resources Development & IT Education <Knowledge industry and Human capital in the information age>
  - IT education system capable of producing world class human resources
  - Development and Management of Human Resources for IT industries
4. E-Commerce <Transition towards digital economy>
  - Redefining Trade Promotion: The need for a strategic response
5. ICT and E-governance
  - Pursuing e-Government: Productive, Transparent and Smart Government
  - Strategy on building the e-Government
6. Women@ICT
  - Opportunities and Challenges
  - Work@home
7. Diffusion of ICT and Development
  - Tele-medicine
  - IT and Knowledge economy/management
  - IT for education <Computer assisted learning/ Distance education >
  - Local Language/Multi language Computing <Local languages in the era of globalization>
  - IT and Media <Internet Radio/Print Media/Multimedia>

- ICT Resource centers
- Users perspectives